

Building My Personal Purpose Statement

Objective: To clarify your personal purpose.

Why? Because, clarity of individual, God-given purpose enables people to serve with purpose and intentionality.

Instructions:

In light of all the tools we have used to take personal inventory of gifts and calling, take time to connect all that you have discovered about yourself and God's gifts to you (the way he made you to be).

Section 1:

Notes from Go &amp; See and my own personal study have shown me the definition of purpose or calling is?	Self-Reflection has shown me the following about myself (my gifts, passions, interests or talents)	Discussions with others have shown me the following about myself (my gifts, passions, interests or talents)

Notes from Go &amp; See and my own personal study have shown me the way to discover purpose or calling are:	Self-Reflection has shown me that I am most concerned about or sensitive to the following needs, hurts or problems in the world around me:	Discussions with others have shown me that I am most concerned about or sensitive to the following needs, hurts or problems in the world around me:

Section 2:

Fill in the following formula with statements that reflect the discoveries you made about yourself in Section 1. You may write more than one version if you feel like you are not able to get your ideas into one sentence.

My Purpose = God's story + my materials + need I see around me + the Holy Spirit

Write a 1-3 sentence purpose statement that answers the following question: Why do I exist?
